BOUTIQUE IS BETTER

Stock syndications aren't the only offerings that are allocated. Wines that are in high demand and low production create supply and demand problems where there is not enough product to satisfy the market.

Because of our buying power and ability to showcase wine in NYC, wineries come to us first.

Below you'll find limited availability wines with none producing more than 550 cases. The efforts of these craft & boutique wineries are putting pressure on their larger counterparts to put out the best product possible....Move over Silver Oak & Caymus, there's a new show in town.

PINOT NOIR

The new world/old world distinction in wine is the continental divide, which has both geographical and stylistic implications. In geographic terms, old world refers to the more tradition-laden wine-producing countries in Europe, whereas new world means the relatively new regions around the globe. To demonstrate this divide, we have chosen the Pinot Noir grape which we believe best exemplifies this comparison.

RHONE VALLEY

North

The Northern Rhone valley stretching from Vienne to Montelimar is home to the most majestic expressions of Syrah in the world. The steep mountain precipices of Cote Rotie give way to the rolling hills of St. Joseph followed by Cornas with it’s dark, brooding wines. Across the Rhone the land rises up the hill of Hermitage, whose wines have been coveted by kings for centuries.

South of Valence to the Mediterranean port of Arles, wines are made with perfumed Grenache blended with a multitude of grapes indigenous to the South of France. Each producer centered in, or around Chateauneuf-du-Pape, finds the perfect recipe for each plot of land. The resulting wines are truly greater than the sum of their parts.

Essencia is the richest and rarest of all Hungarian Tokaji wines. It is the truest expression of terroir known to man. Typically, this free run juice takes 6 to 8 years to complete its fermentation to less than 3% alcohol. Essencia can reach 85% residual sugar. Essencia wine is legendary. Essencia 2008 is presented in numbered bottles in a brass hinged wooden box complete with a traditional crystal spoon. ‘Drink now through the year 3000’ - R.Parker
